1. The Firm was provided with a list of interested parties, a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit 1, and conducted a search of Firm's records for the names identified thereon. Based on that search, neither I, the Firm, nor any member, counsel, or associate thereof, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, has any connection with the Debtors, their creditors or stockholders, or any party in interest herein, except as set forth hereinafter:

(a) [None]

2. The Firm does not represent or hold any interest adverse to the Debtors or their estates with respect to the engagement for which we are to be retained.

3. This Firm has represented the Debtors in providing real property tax representation on freestanding locations where the Debtors are obligated to pay one hundred percent of the real property taxes on various locations since 2000.

4. This Firm and certain of its members, counsel, and associates may have in the past represented, currently represent, and may in the future represent entities that are claimants or equity security holders of the Debtors in matters totally unrelated to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. None of those past or current representations are material. This Firm will be in a position to identify with specificity all such persons or entities when lists of all creditors of the Debtors have been prepared and will make any further disclosures as may be appropriate at that time. The Firm intends to apply for compensation for professional services rendered in connection with these chapter 11 cases directly to the Debtors, in accordance with the OCB Professionals Order, with such application to request compensation for services based on the rates set forth below, plus reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses and other charges incurred by the Firm. Phase II fee- $1250 per store location and $3250 per distribution warehouse for initial administrative action, where warranted to seek a reduction in assessment. Phase III fee-to be mutually agreed to on a case by case basis if a further appeal is needed.

5. The rates set forth above are subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions. Such rates are the Firm's standard rates for work of this nature. The rates are set at a level designed to fairly compensate the Firm for the work of its [attorneys and paralegals/other professionals] and to cover fixed and routine overhead expenses. It is the Firm's policy to charge its clients in all areas of practice for certain other expenses incurred in connection with a client's case. The expenses charged to clients are filing fees, where required, and formal appraisals, where required. The Firm will charge the Debtors for these expenses in a manner and at rates consistent with charges made generally to the Firm's other clients.

6. Except as provided in the OCB Professionals Order, no representations or promises have been received by the Firm [nor by any member, counsel, or associate thereof] as to compensation in connection with these cases other than in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. The Firm has no agreement with any other entity to share with such entity any compensation received by the Firm in connection with these chapter 11 cases.
